Transport of belongings

Every passenger may travel with his or hers hand luggage. Hand luggage means not only purses or bags but also larger items that can be placed above and below the place occupied by the passenger. The hand luggage cannot negatively impact the safe and comfortable travel of other passengers. The passenger remains solely responsible for his or hers hand luggage.

Information about hand luggage left on the train may be provided to the Call Center under the following telephone number: +48 22 364 44 44.
